SALAAM-UN-ALAYKUM

We are Muslims, which means that everything we do is for Allah. Allah tells us that all Muslims are brothers and that we should care for each other.

By saying Salaam-un-alaykum you are not just saying hello, but you are telling the person that you care about them and you will not hurt them in any way because Salaam-un-alaykum means "Peace be on you."

When you wake up in the morning the first thing you should do is say Salaam-un-alaykum to your mummy and daddy.

When the Muslims enter into heaven they will hear a voice saying Salaam-un-alaykum to them.

So before you talk to a Muslim you should first say Salaam-un-alaykum to him. It is also good to shake hands with him.

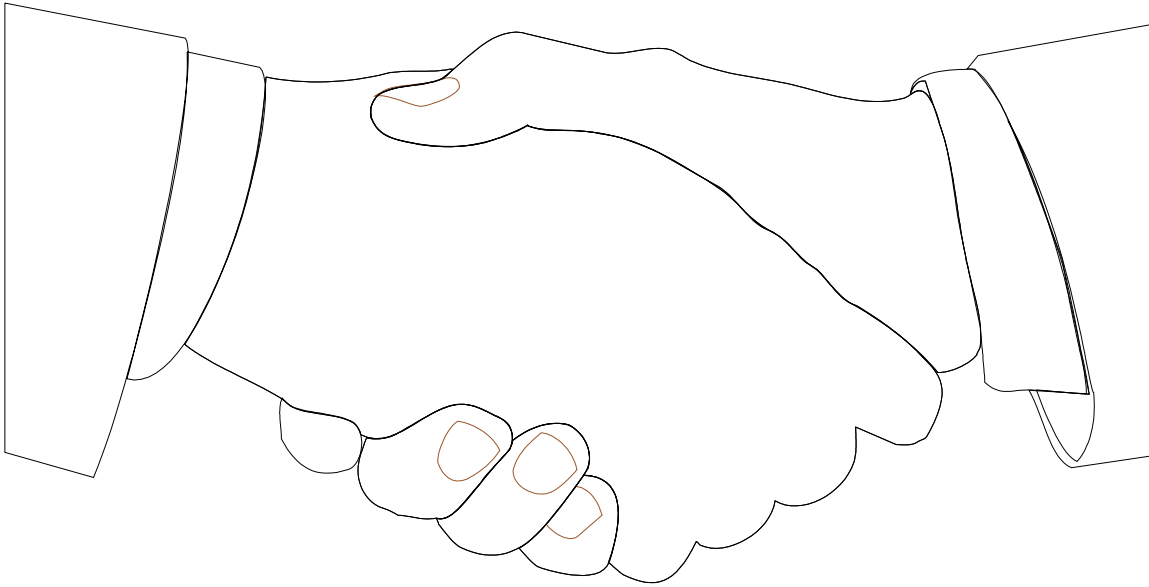

When you pick up the telephone you should first say Salaam-un-alaykum.

If someone says Salaam-un-alaykum to you then you should reply with Wa-alaykum Salaam (Wa Rahmatul Laahi Wa Barakaatuh). Allah does not like for you not to reply to Salaam.

WORKSHEET 1

SALAAM-UN-ALAYKUM

Go around the class and say Salaam-un-alaykum and shake everyone's hand.

Remember all Muslims are brothers, so we should love and care for each other.

FI-AMANILLAH (KHUDAH-HAFIZ)

We are Muslims, which means that every thing we do is for Allah. Allah tells us that all Muslims are brothers and that we should care for each other.

By saying Fi-Amanillah you are not just saying bye-bye but you are telling the person that you love and care about them because you are asking Allah to take care of them.

Fi-Amanillah means: I leave you in the care of Allah.
Khudah-Hafiz means: May Allah take care of you.

When ever you leave your mummy and daddy you should say Fi-Amanillah to them so that Allah may keep them safe.

Before you go to sleep you should say Fi-Amanillah.

WORKSHEET 2

FI-AMANILLAH (KHUDAH-HAFIZ)

Colour in the waving hand, saying Fi-Amanillah as you are doing so.

SHARING

Allah likes you to share your things. Remember all that you have is from Allah so to thank Him you should listen to Him.

One day a woman came to Talib's house to see his mummy. There was a little boy with her.

Talib's mummy told him to play with the little boy. Talib did not want the little boy to play with his toys, in case he broke them.

The little boy started crying and went to tell his mummy. Talib's mummy asked Talib to share his toys with the little boy but Talib would not.

A few days later, Talib went to his friend's house, but his friend was being mean, and he would not let Talib play with his toys. Talib was very sad.

When Talib got home he told his mummy how mean his friend had been.

Talib's mummy asked him how he had felt when his friend had been mean to him and not shared his toys. Talib said it had made him sad. Then, Talib's mummy reminded him how he had been mean to that boy who had come with his mummy to their house and how he had not shared his toys with him.

Talib was very sorry for not sharing and making the boy sad. He promised that from then on he would always share his things with everyone.

To show how sorry he was, the next time the little boy came to his house Talib told him he was sorry and let him play with whichever toy he wanted.

Moral:

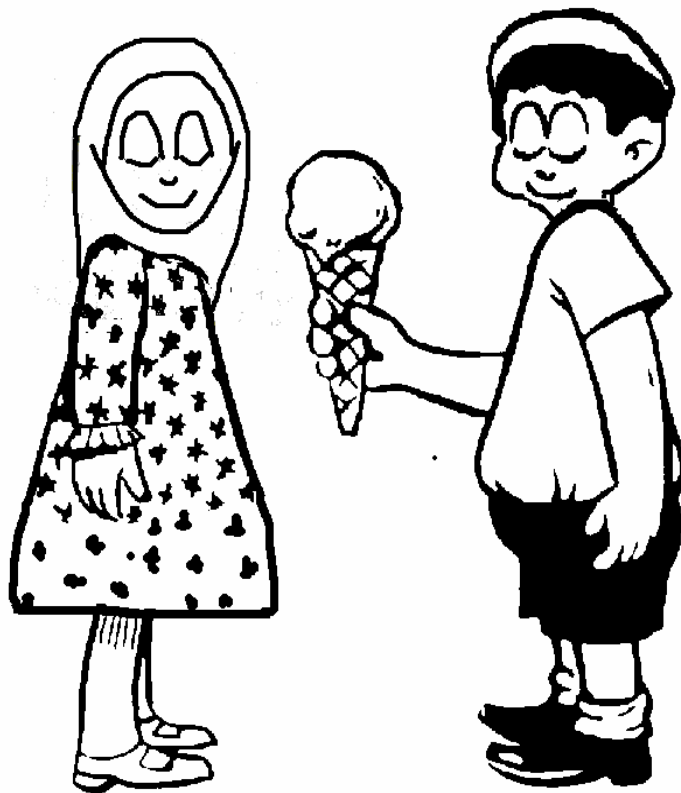

You should always share your things with other people, and make them happy.

Remember Allah has given you all that you have, so if you do things that makes Allah happy, Allah will give you much, much more.

KINDNESS TO ANIMALS

Talib was walking down the street with his mummy when he saw an ant on the floor. Talib stepped on the ant.

When Talib's mummy saw what Talib had done she was very sad. She told Talib that all the animals had also been made by Allah just like him.

Then Talib's mummy told him the story that our Holy Prophet, Prophet Muhammad (S) had told the Muslims:

One day a man was walking in the desert. It was very hot and the man was very thirsty.

He was looking for water when he saw a well. He climbed all the way down the well. It was very hard. At last he reached the water and drank all he wanted, then he climbed back up.

When he reached the top, he saw a dog with its tongue out. The dog looked very thirsty. The man remembered how thirsty he had been and felt sorry for the dog.

The man decided to climb down the well again to get some water for the dog. He had no cup with him so when he reached the water he filled up his boots with water.

He then climbed up the well holding the boots in his mouth as he needed both his hands to climb up. It was very hard and he became very tired, but at last he reached the top.

The dog was very happy to see the water and began to wag his tail excitedly.

The dog drank all the water from the first boot and all the water from the second boot.

The man then carried on his journey happily.

The Holy Prophet, Prophet Muhammad (S) told the Muslims that Allah was so pleased with this man that he would go to Heaven.

When Talib heard this story from his mummy he was very sorry for stepping on the ant. He promised his mummy that from then on he would always be kind to animals, because he too wanted to go to Heaven.

(The story of Imam Hasan (A)).

WORKSHEET 4

KINDNESS TO ANIMALS

Tell your mummy and daddy the story of the thirsty dog.

Now colour the picture.

TOILET MANNERS

You should go to the toilet as soon as you need to and not wait to finish what you are doing.

Before you go into the toilet you should wear some slippers, because the floor may be wet (najis) and your feet will also get wet (najis).

When you go into the toilet, walk in with your left foot first.

Put some water into a jug, (if you can wash yourself).
If you go to the toilet at school, try to take some water in a cup.
If there is no water to wash yourself with, then after you have done your wee-wee clean yourself with a tissue.
Remember to tell your mummy that you used tissue and not water, because your underwear may be najis and need to be washed.

Make sure that when you go to the toilet, you sit on the seat.
Allah does not like anyone to stand and do wee-wee.

When you have finished, wash yourself 2 times, better still 3 times, if you can, otherwise call someone to wash you.

Get off the toilet and put your clothes on again. Then flush the toilet. Wash your hands and wipe them dry. Leave the toilet with your right foot.

Remember that when you are sitting on the toilet you should not face or have your back to Qibla. If the toilet is facing Qibla then sit a little sideways. Remember not to talk while you are on the toilet.
